There's one thing about clothes that young men ought to be particular about—

Style

Not the freakish, faddish style you see in some clothes; that isn't style.

There's something quite different from that in real style.
A stylishly dressed man is one whose clothes fit, and who has an "air" of being well dressed.
The lines of the garments are right.

That's the thing so many young fellows just miss; it's the fault of "cheap" clothes generally.

The only way to get STYLE in clothes is to go where it is, and get clothes that have it.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Ezra Edwards of Voluntown has been visiting in Norwich for several days.

George Upton, of Norwich, was a guest at Fred Brotham's in Abington.

Ernest Maede and Elford Rogers of Niantic, were in Norwich on business Tuesday.

Miss Catherine Thow has returned home after attending the Malone-Newman wedding in New London.

Mrs. George W. Wilcox has returned to Myrtle from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilcox in Oneco.

Miss Ruth Bates of West Woodstock has been spending a few days in Norwich as the guest of Mrs. C. C. Gidder-leeve.

Luther Irons, who has been visiting his brother Gilbert Irons, at Laurel Glen, has returned to his home in North Ashford.

Harry Denison of Ledyard, who is employed in Mystic, has moved his household goods and family from Denison homestead in Ledyard to a rent in Willow street, Mystic.

Miss Ellen G. McCloud of Broadway school, county director of the Connecticut State Teachers' league, attended the banquet given by the league at the Tarr Hotel, New Haven, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gage, who have been at Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harding's account of Mr. Gage's health, left for Williamette, Saturday, where Mr. Gage is now employed.

Mrs. William Young of Boswell avenue, who recently moved here from Hartford, has been there for a few days past, as Mr. Young has just returned from over three months in Mexico. He is to remain at the Hartford army until the company was mustered out, before coming to their home in Norwich.

NORWICH MERCHANTS WILL REBATE TEACHERS' FARES
Many Will Undoubtedly Take Advantage of Cooperative Plan.

Today hundreds of Eastern Connecticut school teachers will be in this city to attend the State Teachers' convention. While the teachers who attend will do so from a desire to improve themselves in their chosen profession, yet many of them will take advantage of the occasion to do their fall shopping. Fortunately for the visiting teachers the time is most opportune for shopping as 60 Norwich merchants, including the most enterprising business concerns in the city, are cooperating in a plan designed to emphasize the trading advantages of Norwich.

To demonstrate their ability to serve the merchandise of the people in this section of the state and as an inducement to trade the merchants have agreed to rebate fares to teachers in a co-operative plan. This opportunity is open to all visitors and undoubtedly many of the school teachers who attend the convention will be quick to see the advantages to be derived by trading with the Norwich dealers who are in the Merchants' rebate plan, and therefore have an opportunity to have their fare from their home town to Norwich and return, rebated.

ELKS HOLD OPEN
HOUSE ELECTION NIGHT
Returns Will Be Announced and Luncheon Will Be Served.

The Elks will hold open house on election night for all members. Luncheon will be served and the election returns will be announced. The bow-

ACCIDENTLY KILLED FRANKLIN

William Credit Met Death When Hound Jumped Against Cocked Shot Gun—Shot Entered His Head and Death Resulted Before Physician Could Reach Him—Companion's Statement Accepted by Medical Examiner.

William Credit, 31 years of age, of High street, Baltic, met accidental death on Thursday afternoon about 3.30 o'clock, while hunting with a lifelong companion, Fred Talbot, in the woods in the vicinity of Franklin, two and one-half miles from his home town and three miles from the city. The fatal shot was fired from a .22 calibre rifle which was cocked and loaded by Credit, who was hunting with Talbot from the nearest farm house. According to a statement made by Mr. Talbot, the hound innocently caused the unfortunate man's death.

The hound had treed a squirrel and Talbot had fired down his gun, a single barrel shotgun loaded and cocked. A ferret was set to work and when the squirrel jumped from the tree, Credit fired, killing the animal. The dog on sight of the squirrel sprang forward, landing on the cocked gun, attempting to jump over it. Credit was into Credit's head and neck on the right side. Credit was about thirty feet away, Talbot assisted Credit to a rock and then went for aid to the Mabury farm. Hurry calls were sent for Dr. Burr of Baltic, Pratt and Thompson of Hartford, and Dr. J. H.
Dyer of New Bedford, Mass. Credit of New Bedford, Mass. and John Credit of New Bedford, Mass.

Medical Examiner Dr. H. H. Howe of the town of Franklin was summoned by Dr. C. G. Gidderleeve, medical examiner of this city, and Corporal Brown were notified. Death was pronounced due to accident and permission was given for the removal of the body.

Credit was 31 years of age, born in Baltic, the son of Paul and Mary Dunham Credit. He has lived practically all his life in Baltic and at one time was employed in the Baltic mills, but recently he has been employed as a clerk for Harry A. Gauthier. On Sept. 3, 1916, he was united in marriage with Valerie Cassavani in St.
Joseph's church, Occum, by the late Rev. F. J. Sullivan. Credit was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Manchester Unity. Mr. Credit is survived by his wife and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Sevigny of Baltic, Mrs. Georgianna Gou-cher and Mrs. Eva Jarvis of New Bedford, Mass., Paul Credit of New Bedford, Mass., Alfred Credit of Syracuse, and John Credit of New Bedford, Mass.
